

Name _____

Use these questions to help direct your research about your destination. Be sure to list websites you've visited to find this information. The websites below are great places to start. Please be sure to follow all computer policies listed in the MVMS Student/Parent Handbook ("Computer Use" and "School Provided Technology").

- <http://www.lonelyplanet.com/>
- <http://www.travel.state.gov>
- <http://www.ricksteves.com>
- <https://www.cia.gov/library/publications/resources/the-world-factbook/>

When do you plan to go?

How long is your trip?

Where in the country are you going?

Where is your starting point?

Any medical considerations for your destination?

What are the weather conditions during your trip?

How many people will you be travelling with?

What documentation do you need to travel to/from your destination?

How do you plan to travel within the country?

Are you going on a tour? Why or why not?

What is included in the tour?

Are there any travel restrictions to your destination?

Any travel alerts to your destination?

What language(s) do they speak?

Hotel? Hostel? Resort? Bed & Breakfast? Air B&B? House swap? Camping?

Suitcases? Backpack?